

Urologist's e-consultation

The option of e-consultations, which began in April 2016, has further improved our co-operation with general practitioners, and has given us the chance to advise our patients more quickly and direct them to treatment.