

In-depth seminogram

If necessary, a MAR test is carried out together with the semen analysis i.e. seminogram, which assesses the existence of antisperm antibodies, and a sperm wash.

This permits the assessment of whether after the wash with a special solution, it is possible to extract sperm cells with better quality and motility. Semen analysis is carried out by the man in a private room provided for it.