

Health certificate for welfare workers providing services directly to persons in need of assistance

A health inspection is required to certify the health status of a person and its compatibility for working on the relevant specialty.