

Health certificate for health care professionals and other health care institution employees who are in direct contact with patients

A health inspection is required to certify the health status of a person and its compatibility for working on the relevant specialty