

Tilt table test, i.e. upright tilt testing

A test where the reasons behind loss of consciousness are investigated with the help of a special tilting table.

The test lasts for about 1 hour. A referral is required for the test.